

Oran Scott

Edna Scott

Edna Hillas Scott, 94, died Thursday, Jan. 17, 1991, in Fairfield, Wash.

She was born Aug. 13, 1896, in Bradford, Yorkshire, England, to Fred and Ester Hepworth Hillas. She married Oran Scott, Jan. 15, 1923, in Farmington. He died in 1964.

She was employed at Sweets Candy Factory in Salt Lake City until her marriage, when they moved to Blackfoot, Idaho, to run their farm. Following her retirement in 1958 she moved to Provo.

She was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

She is survived by two daughters, Faye Schultz, Worley, Idaho; LaDean Noll, McQuenney, Texas; 12 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, three great-great-grandchildren; 11 step-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a daughter, Shirley Mae Korb.

Funeral will be Saturday, 1:30 p.m. at the Berg Drawing Room Chapel, 185 E. Center, Provo, where friends may call Saturday, 1-1:30 p.m. prior to services.

Burial Provo City Cemetery.

Contributions may be made to the Good Samaritan Center, Fairfield, Wash.